WASHINGTON

“To promote literature in this rising empire, and to encourage the arts, have ever been amongst the warmest wishes of my heart. And if the donation . . . (to Washington Academy) is likely to prove a means to accomplish these ends, it will contribute to the gratification of my desires.”

G. Washington

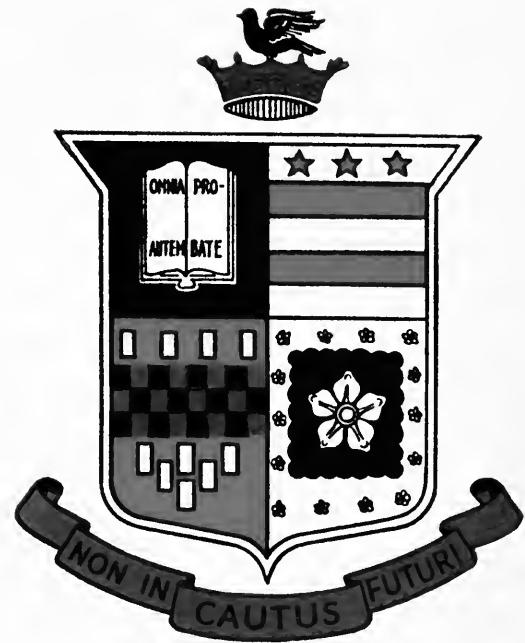

Robert E. LEE

"I think it the duty of every citizen to do all in his power to aid in the restoration of peace and harmony, and in no way to oppose the policy of the State or General Governments directed to that object. It is particularly incumbent on those charged with the instruction of the young to set them an example of submission to authority.

DEDICATION

6/20/1965

It is not the purpose of this dedication to exalt by flowery sentiment and superficial lists of achievement the men to whom it is dedicated. The sentiment would be disregarded immediately as insincere, and the achievements are too prolific to be listed here. Let it be more than sufficient to list one achievement which few men wholly realize, but that these men have significantly displayed: the acceptance and understanding of life. This gives them confidence in themselves and others which makes for a great scholar, artist, professor, friend.

In the dynamic persons to whom we dedicate this book, there is so much of life and experience, both past and continuing, that it is impossible to grasp all that they represent.

As Conrad speaks of his own tasks, so we speak for the lives of these men.

My task which I am trying to achieve is . . . to make you hear, to make you feel—it is, before all, to make you SEE. That—and no more, and it is everything. If I succeed, you shall find there according to your deserts, encouragement, consolation, fear, charm—all you demand—and, perhaps, also that glimpse of truth for which you have forgotten to ask . . .

It is indeed, an honor to dedicate the 1965 edition of the CALYX

FOREWORD

In this era when the human attempt to dominate the physical universe has accentuated the attempt to subdue men's minds, the word "education" often has been prostituted to mean "indoctrination". Not only has international communism sought to dominate men's entelechy to a degree unknown by previous generations, but also, unusual domestic conditions have created a more impersonal society.

Not only has political thought expanded its organic scope, but also in areas of business, religion, and even social and family affairs, one is confronted with intensification, stratification, and centralization. Increasingly individuality, spontaneity, creativity, and personal contemplation have succumbed to regimented, planned ideas. To consider the position of our staff as a minute and seemingly insignificant illustration, we have observed that the Calyx has fallen into such a pattern of late.

We feel that, as the liberal arts college represents a bastion where individual growth and personal development may be attained, the Calyx has been unsymbolic of the opportunities that education offers toward creativity and individual pursuit. In order to better captivate the college ideals of individuality through endeavor and enlightenment, we have attempted to incorporate an individuality of our own into the 1965 Calyx, by divorcing ourselves from past patterns and stereotyped ideas, trying to offer a more up to date portrayal of the "college experience".

THE YEAR 1965

America's future has always belonged to its youth, but never before have the young staked out so large a claim on America's present.

In Perspective

We are only faces in the crowd, but there are things in our college experience, both concrete and intangible, which tend to make us individuals . . .

But Look Closer Into the Crowd, and you will find individuals striving for self-fulfillment, each proving himself in his own way, seeking his own goal in life . . .

We have chosen to seek fulfillment of these goals in our . . .

Life at Washington and Lee University.

Every Year Has the Same Beginnings,

But there comes with it new faces, new experiences, and an even fresher outlook . . .

Freshman camp, rush, registration, convocations, and the start of classes make for . . .

A Hectic First Week

during which we see old friends, make new ones, and set our sights for the coming year.

To Achieve in the Classroom constitutes our major purpose and goal at Washington and Lee, for this is the reason that we chose to partake in this college experience . . .

although this experience is only what one of it

We have come to Washington and Lee to make of ourselves the complete man, searching for and finding . . .

... the keys to better understanding that open the doors of learning through . . .

Consultation and Observation.

But To Be “Complete Men,” . . .

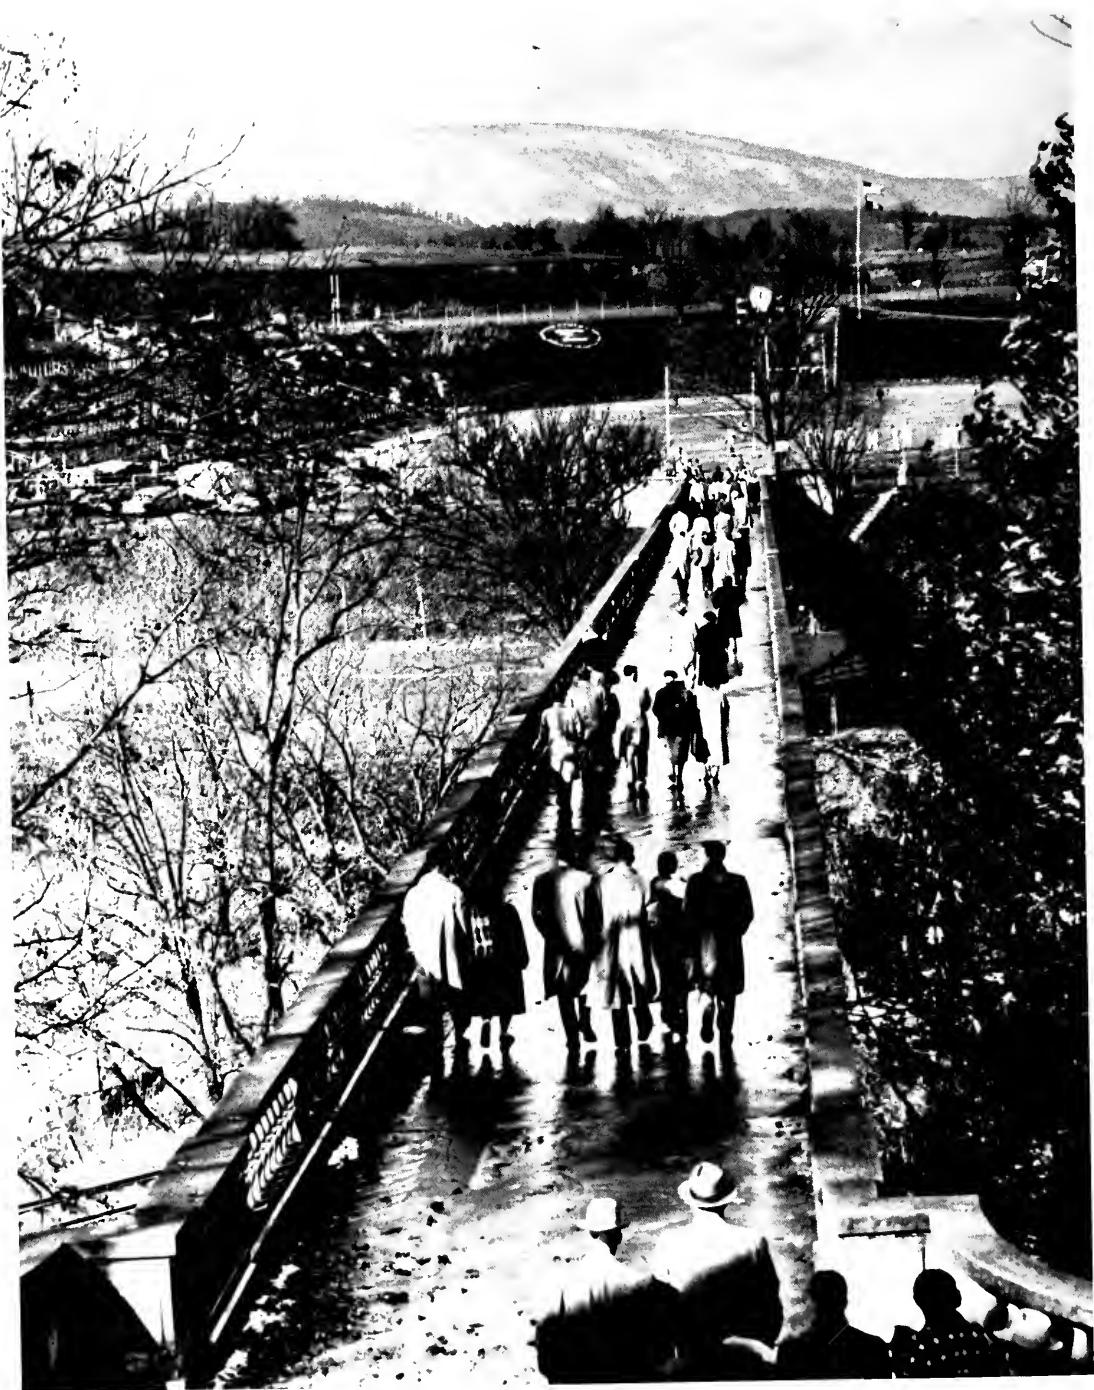

We Must Extend Ourselves . . .

beyond the classroom, into other realms which the college experience has to offer.

Autumn Stresses Our Diversities . . .

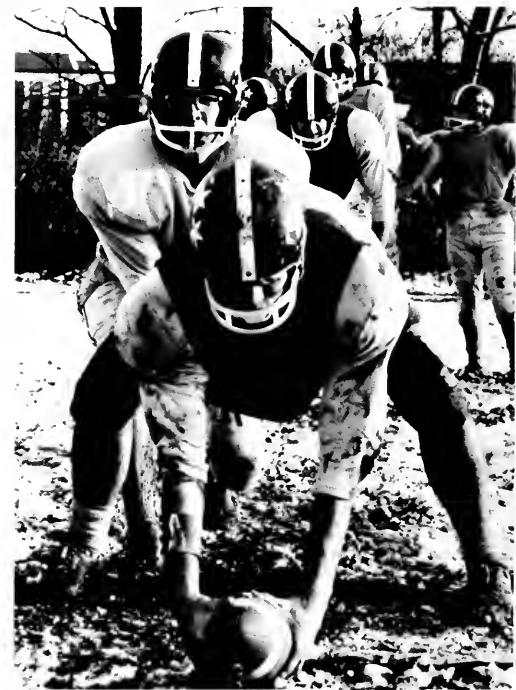

. . . as our varied concepts of what the total college experience is leads us into different fields of pursuit.

And Yet We Are

by an eventful time of the year highlighted by all sports, Openings, Homecomings, and Parents Weekend . . .

Brought Together . . .

A Distinctive Time of the Year

We pay tribute to those who made this experience possible.

Winter Grows Unrelentingly Near,

changing the physical world about us, seemingly confining us.

But Winter Brings Renewed Dedication to the academic aspects of our life at Washington and Lee, yet the lighter side of our experience is not dimmed, as . . .

... We Turn to Fancy Dress, a time to relax and forget for a few days the pressure of the preceding weeks.

As winter retreats we are imbued with a renewed sense of purpose in our being what we are as . . .

Spring Revitalizes Our Spirits

It Makes Us Aware of the responsibilities which we must accept as members of a great society . . .

... challenging us to assume an eminent position in that evolving society.

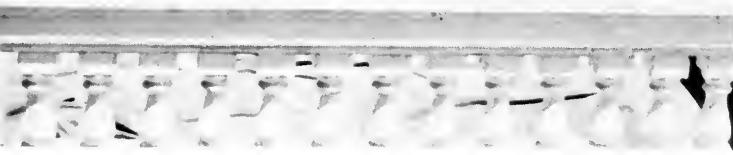

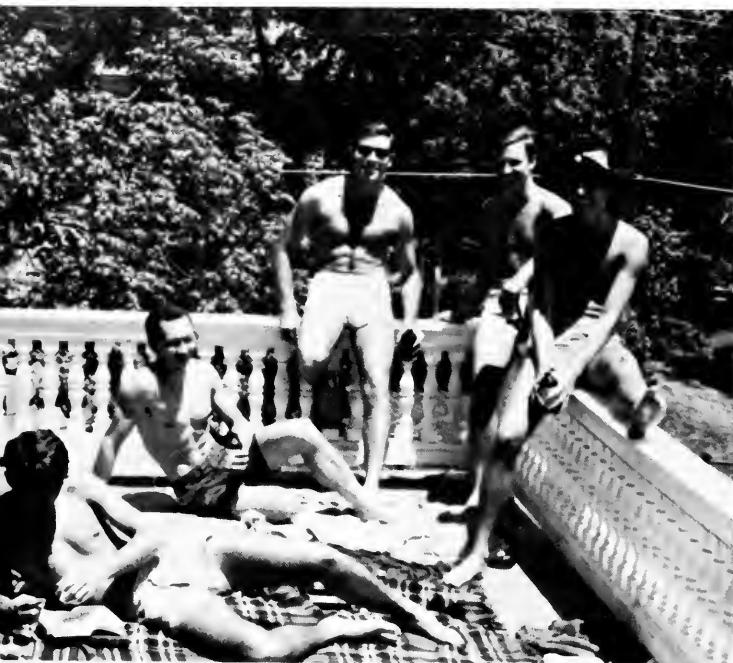

Mock

a unique experience, showed that acceptance of responsibility could provide its own pleasures.

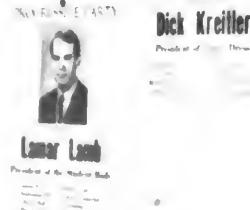

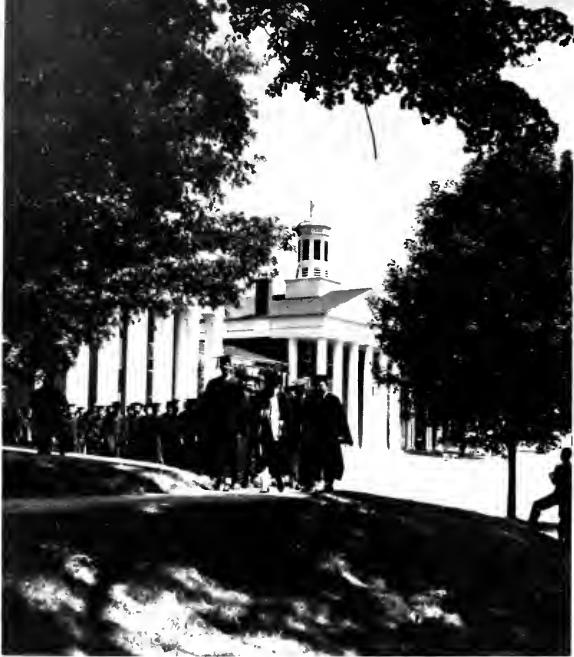

As the end of the college year draws near, we amuse ourselves in a variety of ...

Frivilous Diversions

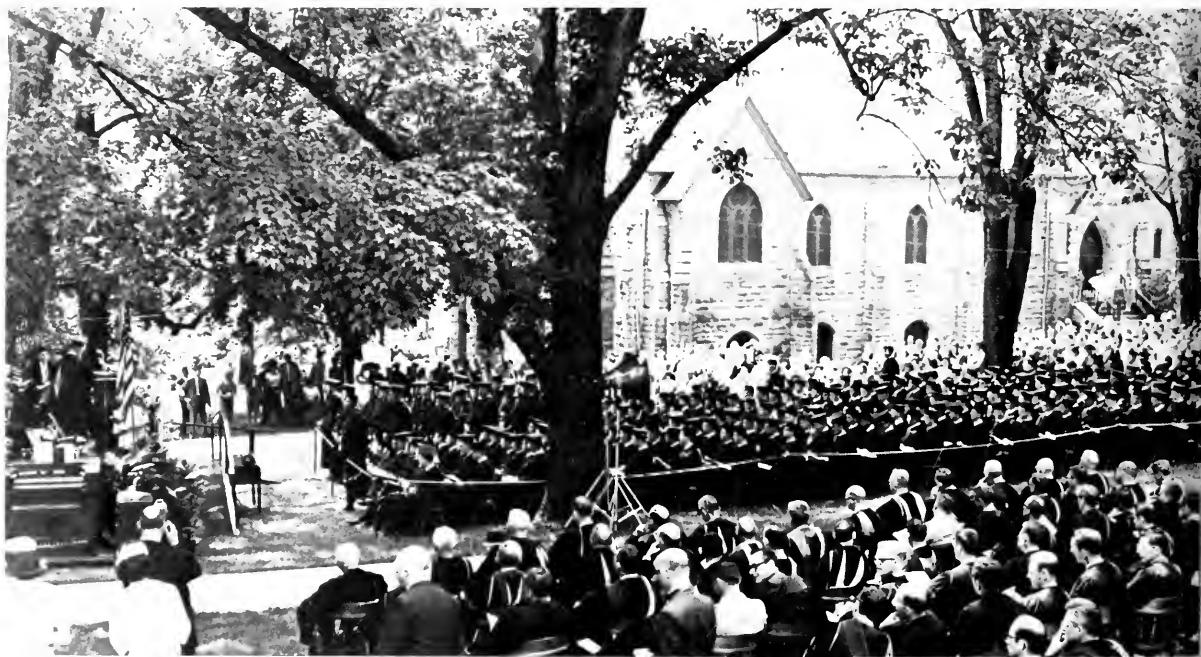

which are only momentary escape from our real goal and purpose.

Graduation

is an end and a beginning. Our college experience is over, but newer and even greater experiences await us.

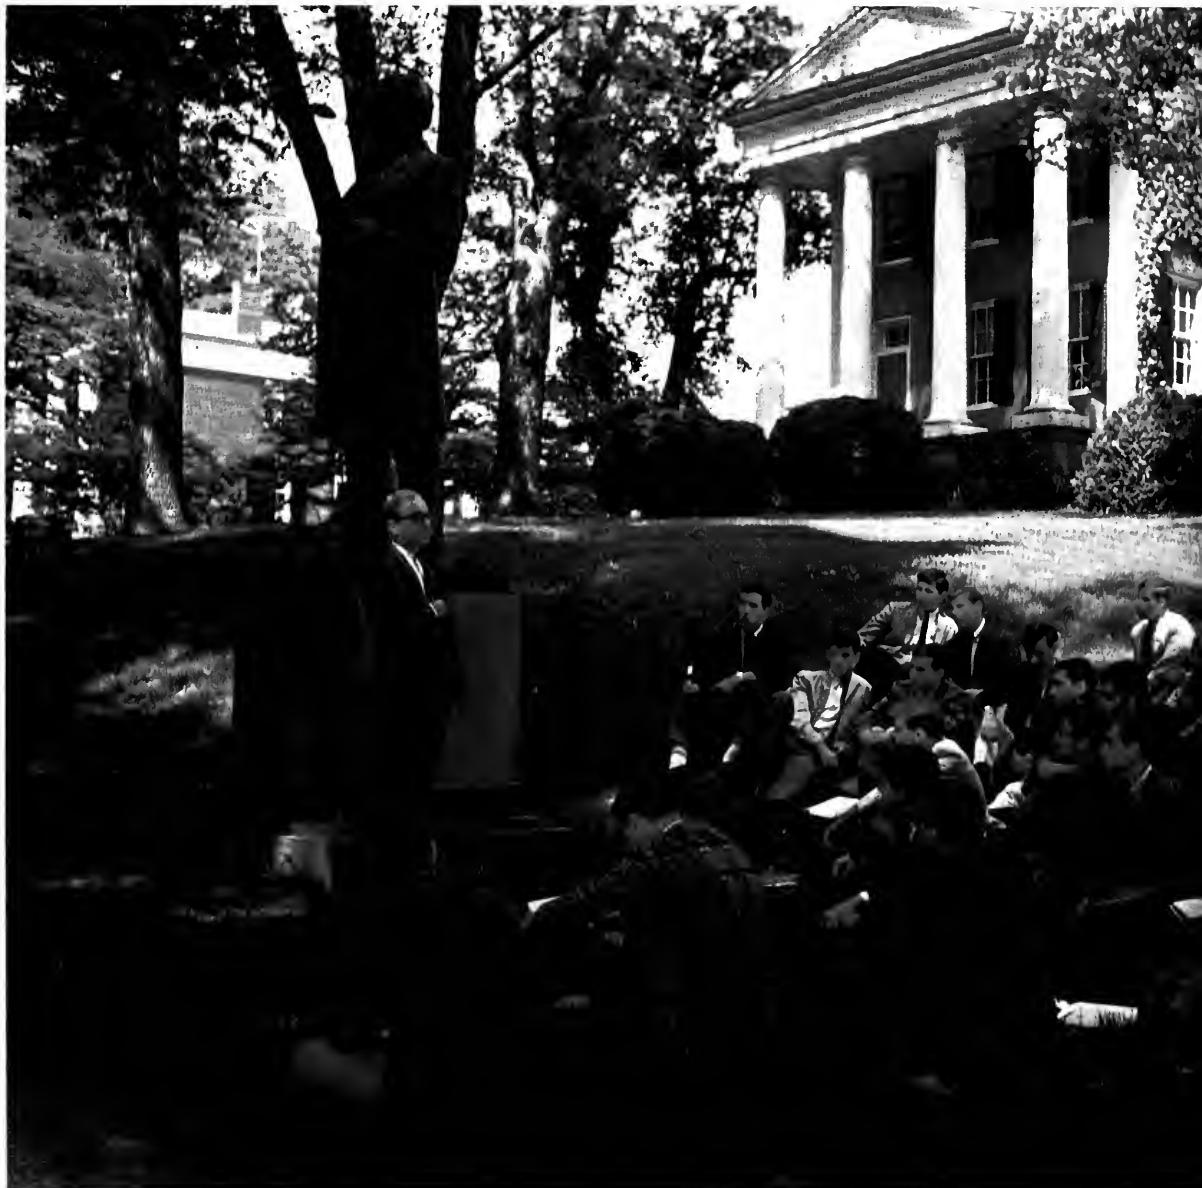

Washington and Lee now becomes an experience of the past, but these wonderful and fulfilling years will often be relived in our minds.

Consider that I laboured not for myself only, but for all them that seek learning.

FACULTY

Dr. F. E. Cole and the

TO THE CLASS OF 1965:

It is my pleasure and privilege to greet you most sincerely and to wish you the best that the future can afford. In this your associates here and the alumni join me.

Our hope is that the years at Washington and Lee have been not only happy but highly profitable ones and that your foundation is so firmly grounded that nothing can cause you to swerve from the course of integrity, loyalty, and honor. Your educational experience has fortified you to face the future with confidence, courage, and enthusiasm and, with this underlying strength, to meet the challenge of turning "obstacles into opportunities and stumbling blocks into stepping stones."

We shall be mindful of your progress and look forward to a continuation of our relationship which I shall remember with affection.

FRED C. COLE

Dr. Cole awards the Ty Rauber Homecoming Trophy to captains David and Crenshaw, representing the entire football team.

ATHLETICS

Washington and Lee's de-emphasis of intercollegiate athletics in 1951 was a necessary action, yet alumni and friends of the University did not accept the change favorably. They liked the thrills and excitement of big-time competition regardless of how the academic standards of the school were effected. Now, some ten years later, complaints are seldom heard for the Generals are achieving unprecedented success while once again playing the game like Gentleman.

University Committee On Athletics

The University Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics is composed of five members of the Faculty chosen by the Board of Trustees, two alumni members chosen by the Alumni Association, and two student members chosen by the Executive Committee of the Student Body.

The Committee exercises the following specific functions: to assist the Administration in the selection of a director of athletics and athletic coaches; to approve the scheduling of all contests; to prepare and submit for the approval of the Board of Trustees a budget for the operation of intercollegiate athletics; and to consider and pass on the applications of students to represent the University in all branches of sport.

Football

The 1964 season was slated as a rebuilding year for the Washington and Lee football team by head coach Lee McLaughlin. With only one starter returning from the 1963 squad, which finished 5-3, the Generals were plagued by inexperience and injuries. The season started off slowly as the young Generals lost four of their first five games.

But as the team overcame its inexperience, the season began an upswing. Three straight wins, one over Sewanee booked as the small college upset of the year, established the Generals as a College Athletic Conference title threat. In a heartbreaker, W&L saw a winning season and a slice of the CAC crown disappear as a last-second field goal gave Washington a 16-14 win in the season finale.

But it was an interim year. Losing only co-captains Bill David and Tom Crenshaw from the Blue team, the Generals will open the 1965 season with the strongest returning squad in recent years. Guard Joe Miller, halfback Billy Andrews and center Jeff Novinger are tri-captains for the 1965 season.

Despite some hard breaks on the field, the 1964 Generals fared well on post-season all-star teams. Star pass catcher Bill David made them all. Chosen as the outstanding Virginia small-college player, he was the only state player chosen for Little All-America honors. Joe Miller joined David on the All-State team as Novinger and tackle Starke Sydnor received honorable mention. David's 44 pass receptions for 493 yards set new W&L and CAC records, and earned him a berth on the All-Conference team along with Sydnor. Miller received honorable mention.

Coach Mac discusses pre-game plans with Bill David and Tom Crenshaw, 1964 General co-captains.

"What do I do now, Coach Mac???"

Opening the season against the Yellow Jackets of Randolph-Macon, the Generals twice failed to score from within the ten and fell 8-0. The Larry Craig-to-Bill David pass combination served notice of things to come, connecting six times for 107 yards.

The Generals hit the winning trail the following week with a 21-0 win over Oberlin. Following a scoreless first half, the Craig-to-David combination clicked from the five to make it 6-0. Fullbacks Tom Sparks and John Anthony tallied on identical plays to cap the scoring. The following week, the Generals traveled to Danville, Ky., and dropped their first conference game 8-0 to Centre College.

In their Wilson Field debut, the gridders absorbed a 28-0 licking at the hands of nationally ranked Susquehanna. Two fumbles and an intercepted pass the following week proved disastrous as Hampden-Sydney defeated W&L 21-0.

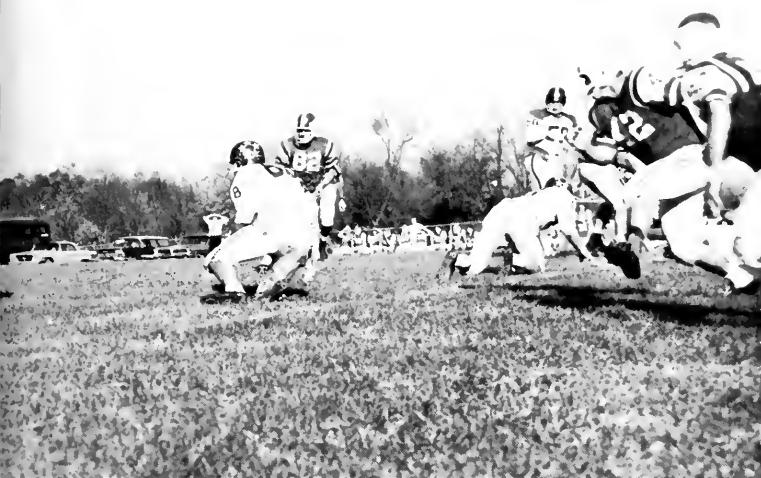

David hauled in a 37-yard pass from Craig to open the scoring in a 28-16 Parents Day win over Bridgewater. Before the day was completed, Sparks had notched his second touchdown of the season. Skip Chase had scored from the two, and Tersh Baker had tallied on a 75-yard pass interception.

Brookby finds an opening with an assist from Miller.

The University of the South, The Generals' opponent for Homecoming, carried a 14-game winning streak into the Wilson Field contest. A stingy General defense held the defending CAC champions to two yards on the ground and 59 yards total offense as W&L accomplished the major upset of the year. Rushing for 395 yards and 27 first downs, the Generals completely dominated the game. W&L scored first on Harry Brookby's sweep, only to see Tiger Bill Johnson return the ensuing kickoff 92 yards to tie the score 6-6 at the half. Cary Green put the Generals ahead to stay on a 12-yard field goal in the third quarter before Logie Bullitt and Tersh Baker added a safety in the final period for the margin of the win.

Suffering a letdown after the Sewanee win, the Generals nevertheless defeated Southwestern for their second consecutive conference victory. Once again it was Brookby diving over from the one and a Green field goal that provided the margin.

Needing a win in the final game of the season for a winning record and a piece of the CAC crown, the Generals found the season 15 seconds too long as they fell to Washington's last-second fieldgoal, 16-14. David scored twice and Green added two conversions, but it was not enough.

Tersh Baker makes a fingertip grab.

Sparks picks up good yardage thru the line.

The 1965 soccer team was the best in Washington and Lee history, posting a 7-2 season's record and a second place finish in the NCAA Atlantic Coast Regional tournament. In the opening round of the regionals the Generals were victorious over Norwich College by a 2-0 margin. Prior to this game Norwich was ranked nationally for defense, having allowed only four goals all season. In the finals after having completely dominated the game for three periods, the Generals succumbed to the United States Coast Guard Academy 1-0. John Van Bork, Dave Redmond, Pete Preston, Bruce Jackson and Bob Larus were named to the all-tournament team.

In regular season play the Generals opened with a string of six straight victories before suffering their first loss at the hands of American University. The Generals bounced back to defeat Roanoke College and earn the No. 2 seeding at the state tournament. After drawing an opening bye, the Washington and Lee men slipped by Randolph-Macon 3-2 to earn a shot at archrival UVa. for the state crown. The game ended in a 2-2 tie, but the Generals were denied victory on the basis of corner kicks, 7-5 in favor of Virginia.

Outstanding for the Generals this year were co-captains Preston and Jackson, Dave Kirkpatrick, Tim Henry, Wes Horner, and Van Bork on the line; Redmond, Howard Busse, and Fred Skinner on defense, and goalie Larus.

Cross Country

Coach Miller and captains Kilpatrick and O'Connor reflect glory of most successful season.

An 8-1 dual-meet record and a third-place finish in the state meet gave the 1964 Washington and Lee cross-country team the best record of all the fall sports. Losing only to Bridgewater in the third meet of the season, the Generals used their depth to win the other meets by large margins.

In no victory did the Generals place the last of their top five men lower than seventh over all. The Bridgewater loss was by a narrow five points over the shorter Bridgewater course. One of the eight wins was a forfeit by American University when only three runners showed up for a triangular meet with the University of Richmond over the W&L course.

Co-captain Andy Kilpatrick led the team on four occasions and tied for the lead once. The other captain, Riff O'Connor, led once and tied with Kilpatrick in the final meet of the season. A bright star for coming years was freshman George Parker. He was the top W&L finisher in the state meet, and led the team in the Fairmont win.

Rifle Team

Captains Head and Johenning with Coach McSheffrey.

Inexperience and strong competition were the key factors in this year's disappointing 2-5 record. Freshmen were called upon to fill the gaps left by graduation and academic ineligibility. Led by Captain Harold Klick, the marksmen started the season by splitting a triangular meet with George Washington and Georgetown Universities. Upon returning to their home range, the Generals, paced by Klick and Harold Head, outscored a strong William and Mary team for their second win of the short season. After the long Christmas break the Gen's found it difficult to hit their mark, and lost two close matches to Richmond and V.P.I. Academics again took their toll, and the Marksmen's road trips were hampered by the loss of several star shooters. The season ended with losses to both William and Mary and Richmond. However, with no losses by graduation and eight lettermen returning, the outlook for next year's team looks very promising.

Swimming

Captains Broaddus and Chase and Coach Eastman.

Captain-elect George Bokinsky awaits the touch in the medley relay.

Setting records in eight events during the season, the 1964-65 swimming team fashioned a 7-4 record, bettering last year's 5-5 mark. Under the direction of Coach Norris Eastman, the Generals rebounded from each loss to finish with their best record since 1962.

Records in both relay events fell before the powerful Generals. The medley relay team of Skip Chase, Bart Taylor, Gary Bokinsky and Bill Wildrick chopped six seconds off their 1963 time, setting a school record of 3:14.5. The medley relay team of Nelson Head, Kester Denman, Wildrick and Taylor set a Maryland pool record of 3:41.3. Wildrick also set two individual records of 1.50.3 in the 200 freestyle and a pool record of 2.02.5 in the 200 butterfly. Taylor set a W&L mark of :48.1 in the 100 freestyle and Head turned in records of 2:05.7 and :57.8 in the 200 and 100 yard backstroke. Captain-elect George Bokinsky broke his own record in the 200-yard individual medley with a 2:07.9 clocking.

Following a season-opening win over Roanoke, the Generals beat Catholic University 50-45 in the season's biggest upset. After losses to Gettysburg and Baldwin Wallace, they snapped back, beating West Virginia and Wake Forest before losing to East Carolina. They ended the season with wins over Old Dominion, Loyola and Georgetown and a loss to American University.

Basketball

"It's not whether you win or lose . . ." might be the motto of the 1964-65 Washington and Lee basketball team. Under the guidance of new coach Vern Canfield, the Generals posted a 2-17 record in a rebuilding year.

In spite of the record, the Generals never stopped hustling, constantly improving as their host of underclassmen gained game experience. With only one senior, captain Dick Livingston, in the starting lineup, the Generals stressed youth, and built for the future.

Possessing an adequate offensive attack, the team suffered from a porous defense. W&L averaged 76.4 points per game, but allowed the opponents an average of 91.2. The Generals were close in the rebounding department, averaging 50.8 per game as compared with 52.8 for the opposition. Bob Spessard, the 6'6" junior center, was largely responsible for the showing in this department, averaging 10.3 rebounds per game. He had a single game high of 21 against R.P.I. Dick Livingston led the scorers with a 14.1 average. He scored 34 against D.C. Teachers College, hitting on 14 of 21 field goal attempts.

Although the Generals shot more times than the opposition, 1431 to 1417, they hit only 40.1 per cent as compared with 47.4 per cent. They also lagged in the free throw department, trailing 67.9 per cent to 72.8 per cent.

Opening the season against two of the state's top small college teams, the Generals allowed over 100 points in each game, losing 102-68 to Old Dominion and 118-84 to Hampden-Sydney. But, with the season two-thirds over, the Generals were still winless. They lost their first 12 straight games.

Then North Carolina Wesleyan invaded Doremus Gymnasium. The Generals completely overpowered the hapless visitors, 81-43. Dick Livingston led all scorers with 15 points, followed by Bob Spessard and Steve Sweitzer with 12 each. Three games later, as if to prove how far they had come, the Generals handed a 95-85 trouncing to Old Dominion, the same team they lost to 102-68 in the season opener. Larry Perrault led the scorers with 30, followed by Livingston with 22.

Sweitzer fires from the key.

Saunders on the drive.

Following the regular season-ending loss to R.P.I., the Generals traveled to St. Louis for the College Athletic Conference tournament. Once again the defense proved unable to hold the opposition in check as the Colonels of Centre College eliminated the Generals 105-81. Julian Palmer was the hot man for the winners, pouring through 32 points to lead both teams. Livingston closed out his college career with 22 points for a season total of 268. Sweitzer was second high scorer with 13.

With the exception of Livingston, the Generals will have their first two teams returning for the 1965-66 season. Leading the returnees are juniors Steve Sweitzer, who scored at an 11.2 clip, Fred Mindel, 11.1, and Bob Spessard, the team rebound leader who also averaged eight points a game. Sophomores Mike Saunders, Jeff Twardy, Tommy Cox, Frank Morrison and Chip Gordy as well as freshmen Larry Perrault and Jody Kline make the future look bright.

Wrestling

Coach Dick Miller's 1964-65 grapplers recorded their sixth consecutive winning season, fashioning a 7-3-1 record against a tough slate of opponents. Wins over North Carolina, North Carolina State, Duke and Loyola and a 12-12 tie with Virginia highlighted the season.

Tri-captains Pete Winfield (9-1), Tom Stover (6-1-2) and Butch West (7-4) led the way as Dick Musick, Jamie Andrew, Warren Stewart, Kemble White, and John Bogart rounded out the usual starting eight. Musick compiled the best season mark with a 10-1 record as White led in pins with six. Freshman Bobby Payne and sophomore Don Patterson added promising depth.

The total individual match record was 55 wins, 28 losses and 5 draws as the Generals rolled up 234 points to 108 for the opposition. Andrew and White will co-captain next year's team.

Lacrosse

Led by co-captains John McDaniel and Syd Butler the W&L stickmen enjoyed their first winning season in many a year, compiling a 5-4 record against tough opposition. In the season opener McDaniel and All-American Carol Klingelhofer monopolized the scoring in a tough loss to Williams College. The Generals bounced back to win four in a row over Hofstra 8-4, Duke 15-0, Villanova 21-1, and North Carolina 11-7. After losing to nationally ranked Washington College and Loyola, the team closed the season by whipping Towson State behind the fine play of Mike Michaeles, Jay Bowersox, and freshmen Bobby Ostroff and Bob Frost.

For the season McDaniel, Klingelhofer, and Michaeles were the leading scorers. Goalie Pete Noonan deserves special credit for his fine record of 118 saves. McDaniel, after receiving All-America honors, starred in the Collegiate All-Star Game with one goal and two assists. With a whole flock of returning lettermen the prospects for a successful season in 1965 are excellent, possibly even deserving of a national ranking.

Washington and Lee's golf team, under the guidance of "Cy" Twombly finished another successful season with a record of five wins and one defeat. The only regular-season loss was suffered at the hands of the University of Virginia in a very close contest, $4\frac{1}{2}$ to $2\frac{1}{2}$. W&L recorded wins over Old Dominion, Hampden-Sydney, Lynchburg College, Bridgewater, and Roanoke College.

Captain Bill Wyly, playing in the number-one position, was ably supported by Bob Duckwall at number two, sophomore Ed Crosland and freshman Mike Gocke.

Looking forward to an even more successful season in 1965, Coach Twombly will be calling on five returning letter-men: Crosland, Gocke, Duckwall, Roger Sennot and Dick Drew.

Tennis

A 10-3 dual match record and a third-place finish in the College Athletic Conference meet were the major achievements of the 1964 Washington and Lee tennis team. Coached by W. C. Washburn and captained by junior Jim DeYoung, the squad put together a ten-match win streak following season opening losses to Wake Forest and the Charlotte North Carolina Racket Club.

Randy Jones and Jim Mell were instrumental in the streak. DeYoung and John Baker missed most of the early matches, but were back in the lineup in time for the last four contests.

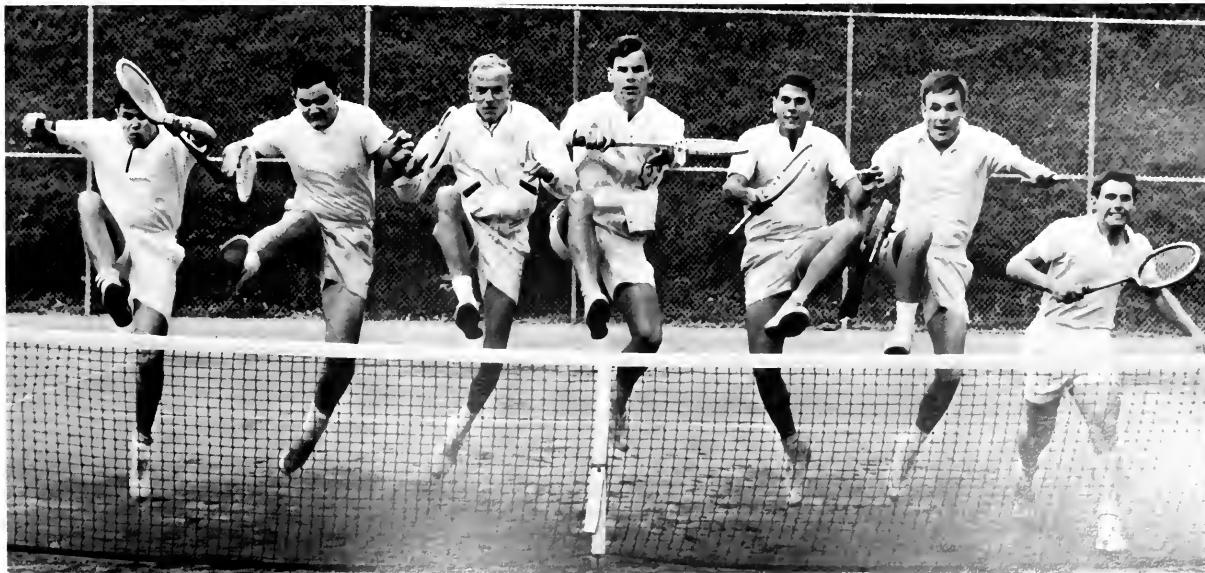

The Generals carried their ten-match win streak into the final contest with George Washington University, the Southern Conference champs. The squad succumbed 7-2 to the Colonials with only Mell winning in singles and combining with Forrest Dickinson to capture the number-three doubles.

Mell, the winner of the Memorial Tennis Cup, led the team to its third-place finish in the CAC meet. He placed fourth in the singles and teamed with Dickinson to take third in the doubles. The Generals were narrowly edged out of second place by Sewanee.

Captain Jim DeYoung receives last-minute instructions from Coach Washburn before a crucial match.

Baseball

The 1964 General baseball squad was loaded with talent and seasoned competitors from the surprising '63 team, 5-3 over-all and second in the CAC tournament. Then key personnel losses through injuries and academic difficulties shattered Coach Lyles' dreams of a winning season and the CAC crown. Forced to rely heavily upon freshmen and sophomores, the Generals finished "the year that should have been" with a disappointing 2-10-1 record.

In the season opener, the Generals battled from far behind to tie Bucknell 11-11 in a game halted by darkness. In rapid succession W&L succumbed to Pfeiffer, Frederick, Old Dominion and Bridgewater. Lynchburg College proved to be the Generals' meat, falling 9-7 in the next contest and then 13-3 in the season finale. In the CAC tournament, Washington was "so near, yet so far" as two one-run losses were all that separated the Generals from conference crown.

Individually, several Generals turned in fine performances. Sophomore shortstop Dave Kirkpatrick complemented his almost flawless play in the field with a .467 batting mark. Third baseman and co-captain Lou Flanagan completed the fine left side of the General infield. At the bat, Kirkpatrick's strong punch was backed up with the clutch hitting of Peter Candler and the blasts of Ashley Allen and Tom Crenshaw. The bright spot on the pitcher's mound was freshman Pete Heumann.

Track

The 1964 Washington and Lee track team, led by a strong contingent of returning lettermen and reinforced by a promising crop of freshmen, posted a 7-1 dual-meet record. The squad narrowly missed winning the championship in the Davidson Relays, succumbing to the host team $44\frac{1}{2}$ -37 in the 14-team field. The trackmen amassed 36 points in the College Athletic Conference meet in Danville, Kentucky for a third-place finish.

Under the direction of Coach Norm Lord and tri-captains Robin Kell, Skip Essex and John Pearson, the Generals rebounded after a season-opening loss to Old Dominion College to sweep the remainder of the schedule. Individual standouts during the season were the Kell brothers, Robin and Chris, Essex and freshman shot putter Gay Gasque, who three times broke the school shot-put record. His final effort of $18'9\frac{3}{4}''$ brought him first place in the Conference meet.

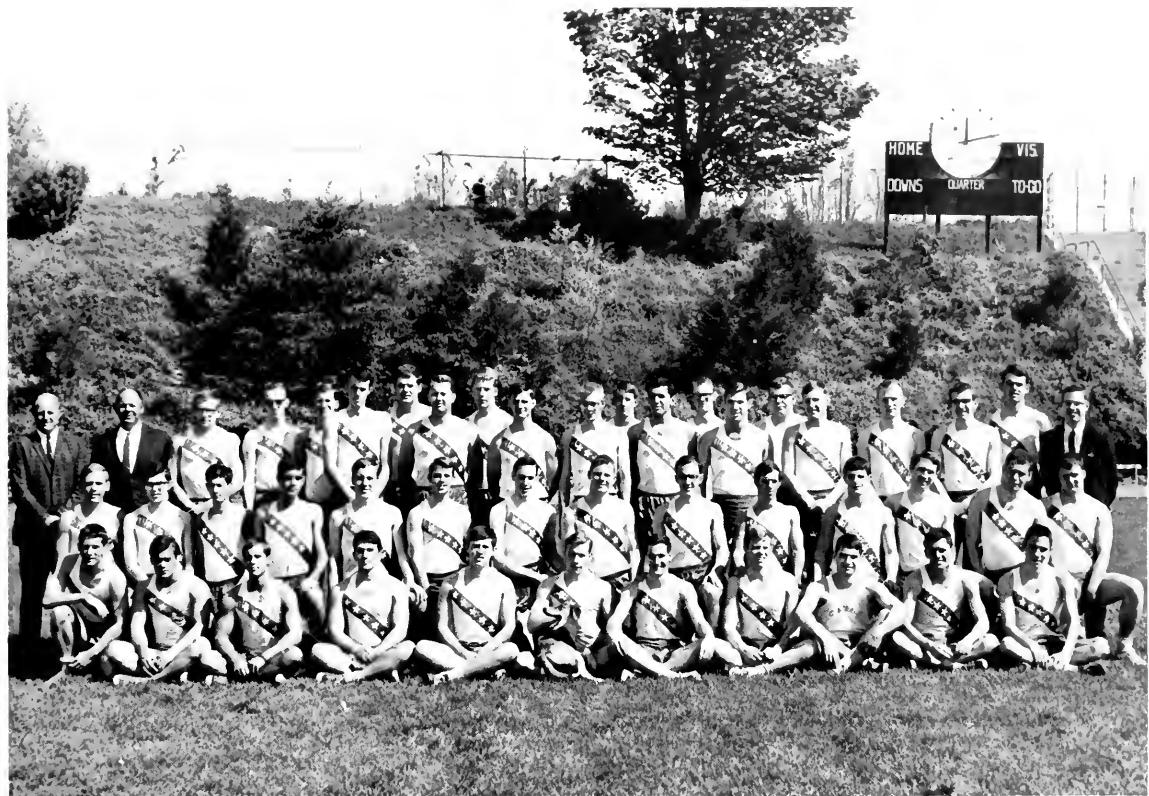

High-scoring honors went to Essex, who edged out Gasque in a close battle. The Forest Fletcher trophy for outstanding leadership was awarded to Pearson at the spring sports banquet. The Memorial Track and Field award went to sprinter Rob Orr as the most improved trackman. The team elected sprinter Chris Kell and distance man Andy Kilpatrick as captains for the 1965 season.

Intramurals

For the second consecutive year the Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity has won the intramural championship. In winning the overall title, the Phi Kap's took an unprecedented five individual sports championships and displayed the greatest overall depth in the history of Washington and Lee's intramural program.

In today's modern and complex society student government is the vehicle in our college and universities which must provide the students with the fundamental qualities of citizenship needed by graduates to take a meaningful place in society. Student government can provide an effective means for developing students in areas such as acceptance of responsibility, the learning of political processes, decision making, and in various other areas which empower students to develop into intelligent and responsible citizens. Student government must provide the catalyst which will spark each student to grow to his full potential. Student government must therefore intensify its efforts to fulfill its obligations or be prepared to flounder in the surf of the coming age of greater emphasis on student government. We must set sail on a new sea of change because there are new opportunities to be gained, new heights to be achieved, and they must be achieved if student government is to become more beneficial and more responsive to the needs of all students. Our student government must move ahead swiftly to design a program which will open and promote the channels of communication and cooperation among students or be left in the wake of those students governments who had the courage to venture ahead.

Executive Committee

The Executive Committee is the governing organization of Washington and Lee. It is also the judiciary for the school's Honor System. Its members are selected in the following way: the President, Vice-president, and Secretary are elected by the entire student body in a general election; two representatives are elected by the junior and senior academic classes to represent it; one each is elected by the freshman and sophomore classes; one each from the senior, intermediate, and freshman law classes.

First Row: Martone, Walker, Carrell, DeYoung, Kulp, Morris, Second Row: Pless, Mindel, Turner, Geer, Kendricks, Nash.

Assimilation Committee

The Assimilation Committee at Washington and Lee is an organization charged with the responsibility of maintaining certain of the university's important traditions—such as conventional dress and the speaking tradition. Its members are appointed annually by the Executive Committee and are chosen from those individuals who have applied by writing for a position. Paramount among the committee's aims is the gradual assimilation of students into the W&L way of life, so that their four years here may be more rewarding and meaningful to both the students themselves and to the university.

Friday Edition Editor

The Ring-tum Phi, the official campus newspaper, is published Tuesday and Friday during the college year. It is printed by the Journalism Laboratory Press of the University. The Tuesday and Friday editors and the business manager are chosen by the Publications Board after an interview in the spring.

This year the paper moved into its new offices in the renovated Reid Hall. The Wednesday edition was edited by Steve Smith, while Shannon Jung was in charge of the Friday edition. The papers improved throughout the year with competition running high between the two. Editorial policy endorsed more student participation in undergraduate life.

Intercollegiate Debate Team

SAM FRAZIER
Captain

The Washington and Lee Debate Team has participated in at least seventeen major tournaments this year—roaming as far south as Durham and as far west as Pittsburgh; in at least four audience debates, three dual matches with other colleges. Furthermore, scores of practice debates are held in a season that runs from September to May.

Participation in debating is open to all students—regardless of ability or previous experience. This year alone, freshman debaters won eight trophies and numerous certificates of excellence.

The Concert Guild brings relatively little-recognized artists in the field of serious music to the Washington and Lee campus, with the dual purpose of providing the community with good music and helping promising but as yet unfulfilled artistic careers. This year's program included Rey de la Torre and a contemporary music ensemble.

Varsity Club

BUTCH WEST
President

The Purpose of the Varsity Club is twofold: it endeavors to further athletics at Washington and Lee, and to provide a social organization of athletes. Membership is restricted to those persons who have earned a minimum of two letters in any varsity sport, and who are presently active in that sport. There is also a quota for membership from each sport, thus the recommendations of the coaches play a significant role in the Club's selection of new members. The Club annually presents a donation to a varsity sport it deems in need of support and an award to the outstanding freshman athlete.

The Young Republicans, the largest organization on campus, began an active year in the midst of the 1964 Presidential campaign. Members canvassed the Lexington-Rockbridge County area in an attempt to arouse support for Senator Goldwater. Members were also active in the Young Republican Federation. Political action courses, mixers, beer parties, and other campaign activities also contributed to the making of a successful year for the club.

In campus activities the KA's can boast of many leaders and participants in sports and organizations. Bill David was co-captain of the W&L football team and received All-America, All-State, and All-Conference honors.

With David leading the way, KA's had five varsity sports captains. House President Ashley Allen

Lambda Chi began the year by taking second place in the annual Homecoming display contest and receiving the national fraternity's scholarship trophy for a consistently high average over the last ten years. The house was strongly represented on the Dean's List and the Honor Roll. An unusually large number of Lambda Chi's held Robert E. Lee Research grants, including Frank Wilbur, Wade Burkhart, Tracy Duggan, Andy Raring, Rick Kneipper, Dave Myers, North Smith, Jack McGill, and Jeff Kugel.

Lambda Chi Alpha

Once again Lambda Chi fielded strong intramural teams in all sports, while at the same time contributing substantially to W&L's intercollegiate teams. Among those participating on intercollegiate teams were Wade Burkhart, Jon Hulsizer, Jeff Lawson, Jim Bruton, Dave Myers, Jeff Kugel, George Hazard, and John M. Lewis.

Two seniors were Presidents of honorary campus organizations. Rick Kneipper was head of Tau Kappa Alpha, the debate society, and house president Tim O'Keefe served as president of Sigma Delta Chi. O'Keefe also served as news director of Radio Washington and Lee.

TIM O'KEEFE

The Phi's opened the year with a typical successful Rush Week. Among our pledges were Tom Howard, Harold Stowe, and Nelson Head, who were starters on the freshman football team. Bryant Kendrick, a sophomore, and junior Bob Barclay were valuable members of the varsity squad. Senior Dave Geer is diving again this year, and classmates Dave Carroll and Louie Paterno are on the golf and baseball squads, respectively. Dick Daesener sparks the lacrosse team.

We are well represented this year politically with

Phi Delta Theta

Dave Geer and Bryant Kendrick on the Executive Committee. Geer is also a dorm counselor. Bill Grant is again on the Assimilation Committee. Harper and Baber are on the CALYX, and Lewis Miller is a managing editor of the Ring-tum Phi. Bear, Paterno, Geer, Baber, Harper, and Kendrick lead the Student Service Society. Geer, Harper, Lawrence, Vaughan, and Bear are in SWMSFC.

The Phi's dominate the Sigma Society with Van Rensselaer, Bear, Paterno, Geer, Holliday, and Morrison. Geer was also chosen for "Who's Who."

Phi Ep's enjoy a game of bridge with their house-mother.

"You'd better start prayin', buddy."

This year has brought Delta chapter prosperity and reason to expect more in the future. Handling Rush Week in such a way that he was honored by the National headquarters, Steve Case steered the chapter through with an eighteen-man pledge class. Openings, Homecomings, Christmas parties, Fancy Dress and many other social weekends were highly successful, thanks to the hard work of our Social Chairman, Harold Klick. The pledge class, keeping in tune with the social seasons, decorated madly (with the Brotherhood's forceful suggestion) and outdid themselves by paneling the chapter room. Chris Miller acted as overseer and top slave on the project.

Phi Epsilon Pi

The House owes a debt of thanks to the Phi Ep intramural tennis team that successfully swept the field of all competitors with a 7-1 record. Captaining the team which netted the House its newest trophy was Fred Taussig who went undefeated through the entire season. Corbet Bryant distinguished himself in the annual Turkey Trot and was noted by the brothers in pledge raids as having one of the fastest set of heels in the business.

For the Zeta Deuteron chapter of Phi Gamma Delta this past year has been a memorable one. Under the leadership of our alliterative president, James Wilson Jennings, the brothers of Zeta Deuteron have broadened their interests in every phase of campus life. Brother Jennings is best known for being chairman of the Liberty Hall Society, but he is also a member of the IFC and Circle K. Dave Marchese, President of the Junior Class, ODK, debater, and Ring-tum Phi staff writer, has proven himself in all phases of campus life. Gordon Archer and Sammy Simpson are Vice-Presidents of pre-med and Commerce schools, respectively. Chip Roadman is a member of Circle K as well as being secretary of Contact. Ken McGraw, a member of the 13 Club, has served as assistant managing editor of the Ring-tum Phi. Three of our Freshmen, Rusty Meyer, Kaz Herchold, and Jeff Wainscott, have distinguished themselves in their first year of debating.

We are also proud of our accomplishments athletically. Wes Horner and Claude Rogers were members of the outstanding soccer team. Jeff Twardy represented us well in basketball. Don Patterson and freshman Don O'Hare made a valuable contribution to the wrestling team.

Virginia Beta has enjoyed unparalleled leadership in all phases of campus activity this fall. The CALYX, Fancy Dress, the Commerce Fraternity, the soccer and lacrosse teams, the Ring-tum Phi, and various informal societies such as the "13" Club and the Sigma Society have all enjoyed the leadership of Phi Psi's.

The highlight of the social season, which brought such top-rate entertainment as Maurice Williams and Gary U.S. Bonds to the house, was the annual Christmas party, which saw Miss Roddy Whipple of Wells College, pinmate of brother Jack Jennings, crowned the sweetheart.

Pete Preston captained the soccer team to its first NCAA berth in history, ably assisted by Ward Briggs and Brad Shinkle. The lacrosse team is looking forward to the return of sophomore lettermen Ted Leach and Bob Frost.

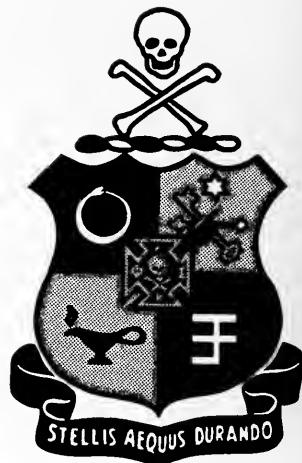

In publications, Dick Kreitler is co-editor of the CALYX while Jim Redenbaugh is the circulation manager of the Ring-tum Phi. Kreitler, president of Fancy Dress, is assisted by Tom Robertson, publicity director of the Dance Board.

Mrs. Cuba Hersey has done a fine job as house mother.

"This guy doesn't have any balls."

"Did you use your Right Guard this morning?"

This was a good year for the Pika House. We started off flying high (figuratively, of course) with two big assets in our favor: we ranked number one academically and third athletically among the fraternities. Both were unexpected windfalls, and together they put the house in the right frame of mind for Rush Week. Success was the story here, too, as the house pledged one of its best classes in recent history.

In sports and campus activities Pi Chapter justified its reputation. Four brothers were dorm counselors: three were Robert E. Lee Research Scholars; members of the house captained four varsity sports, with Andy Kilpatrick doubling in track and cross country. Tracy Harrington, Pi's frustrated journalist, managed to keep the campus astir by ample mud-slinging in the Ring tum Phi, while Bill Atwell kept everybody cool with good sounds from his trumpet in the Brass Choir.

Pi Kappa Alpha

Socially, Pi held its own, and it was able to equal the past few years in parties. The Christmas champagne party, a tradition at Pi, proved, as usual, to be the best single weekend of the year.

BOB STAUFFER
President

Rho chapter of the Pi Kappa Phi fraternity was founded at W&L in 1920, sixteen years after the founding of the national fraternity.

Pi Kappa Phi has established a worthy record in athletics this year. Curtis Jernigan played on the football team, while All-stater Howard Busse, Sterling Bolling, Pete Tooker, and Ralph Schenkel played soccer. Bill Butler and Howard Busse represent W&L on the swimming team and Whitney Thornton and Sterling Bolling are on the rifle team. In other sports Howard Busse plays tennis; Ron Williams runs cross country and track, while Scott Tappan plays lacrosse.

Pi Kappa Phi

In campus activities Charlie Bright is president of the Troubadors and Patton Adams is secretary of the IFC. Guy Unangst serves as sports editor of the Ring-tum Phi and senior editor of Radio W&L. Working for the Troubadour theatre are brothers Bright, Luck, McKinnon, Millard, Williams, Keely, Bolling, Wallace, Christovitch, Barley, Broaddus and Carnahan. Rick Johnson and Bill Butler sing in the Glee Club. Tommy Baremore is a member of the freshman debate team. Patton Adams and Jody Luck were two of the founders of the Circle K Club, which was started this year.

Rho wishes to extend its deepest appreciation to Mrs. Dorothy H. Camp, our housemother, who has added so very much to our house.

The Virginia Sigma chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon was founded in 1867, two years after the national fraternity was founded at Alabama. The chapter has grown to be one of the largest and most influential on campus.

During the school year 1964-1965 the SAE's were leaders of many campus activities. Jody Brown was the Senior Class president. Rick Carrell served as business manager of the Ring-tum Phi, and Joe Wheeler was the chairman of the Student Control Committee. All three of these men were recognized for campus leadership by being elected to Who's

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Who. Serving on the Executive Committee were three men of Virginia Sigma, Jerry Turner, Rick Carrell, and John Heinzerling. In addition, SAE had 5 brothers in SWMSFC, 6 in the Student Service Society, 7 in the Liberty Hall Society, 3 in Sazeracs, and 3 serving as dorm counselors.

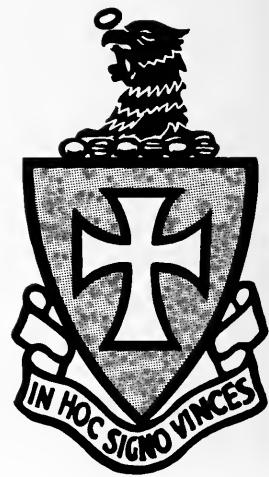

In sports SAE was represented in football, lacrosse, tennis, wrestling, basketball, swimming, and on the golf team by the captain, Ed Crosland. Junior Starke Sydnor received All-State mention as a member of the football team.

The men of SAE wish to thank our housemother, Mrs. Lucy Wilkins, for her devoted service.

One more successful year for the Sigs. Outstanding third-floor leaders-sleazoids, plus Wilford: "Let's get an apartment way out." Sure! Cline takes O.S.U. gas, while Flatau discovers Hollins laundry. Jon Warner on his rampage through Lexington's "Harlem": "Did I really!" Transferee, Tommy Tulane, imitates wild animals, accompanied by McMurry's martini melody, "—'em, Sooners!" Chuck Reese's newest—Women I Have Known—was published, but too short: he should have referred to President Hal's 1001 Engagement Nights. By the way, if Lotti calls . . . Kennedy snagged 22—biggest on campus. Broaddus heads swimming team. Rip: "I shall return!" Arduous study yielded many mid-semester scholars—Hulse gains recognition.

Versatile pledges: accomplished lumberjacks and adept thespians. But it was all so essential. Pledge Reynolds found fine local establishments, while McGaughey and Biehl took VMI tour. Admirable competition for Palmer Award, but prize snagged by Stallworth's date. Pledge Lieblang wins Early Bird title—a little too much party-house.

Big weekends and Sweetheart Formal round out big year. So as the ol' factory whistle blows at Blossom Hill, just pull up commander—Uncle Sam's closing in!

A Randolph-Macon student: "A world of forced fun."

The Sigma Nu's worked long and hard to create their Homecoming masterpiece.

Sigma Nu was well represented again this year in all phases of student life. In the literary and scholastic fields, Brothers Baur and Smith were on the Publications Board. Smith is president of OΔK and editor of the Ring-tum Phi. Baur edits the Southern Collegian. Brother Bennett is a class officer, and both he and Brother Thomas study under R. E. Lee Research Grants. Brothers Harden and Thomas also have been awarded George F. Baker scholarships.

Sigma Nu's also found their way into many an athletic locker room. Brothers Foley and Reading played football, and Corning, Dowler, Morrison, and Foley were on the track team. However, big honors went to Dave Redmond, fullback on the soccer team. He was All-Virginia, All-South, and will be captain of the team next year. Brother Morrison was a Sophomore starter on the basketball team.

The house's atmosphere was also helped by the addition of the Intramural golf trophy, Brother Harden's modern jazz, and Housemanager Hurt's fine work. All in all, Sigma Nu enjoyed a great year.

WALTER BENNETT

The Richmond summer rush party was a success as Bishop met the entire freshman class. Bob and Joe mixed rush week with a couple of BV townies. Quante and Louise debated celibacy. Tours of the old house and parking lot brought eighteen pledges and a little bit of beer showed the real Rich Allen. The McElhaneys ran all over the place. To the Ten Commandments of pledging was added: "Thou shalt not dump on dates." Skeeter's donation to the house was a reverent monkey. Chuck and George started early and made the road team on the first Friday night. Spunky's bed caused the Sunday night flame session plenty of trouble. Joe's sense of comedy kept the house laughing. Friday afternoon Covington teams became quite the thing. Bill Hartman broke one of his oldest records by dating the same girl four times in a row. Legg's discount beer was bought at a discount by, you guessed it, Legg. The study team, which was dismayed by the loss of Jere Cravens, found new life in T. K. Oates. Homecomings brought another trophy to the house and another steam roller in front of Washington Hall.

Sigma Phi Epsilon

Phi Eta Sigma

Phi Eta Sigma is a national scholastic honorary fraternity, its purpose being to recognize freshmen who have shown proficiency in the field of scholarship. Each year, all freshmen who make an overall grade point ratio of 2.5 or better out of a possible 3.0 during their first semester at Washington & Lee are eligible for initiation. A banquet-initiation is held every February to honor the newly elected members.

Beta Gamma Sigma

Beta Gamma Sigma is a national honor society which recognizes outstanding scholarship and accomplishment in the arts and sciences of business administration. Chapters are installed only in colleges and universities accredited by the American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business. New members are elected by the active members from the senior candidates for degrees in commerce and administration, but no more than ten per cent of such candidates can be elected. Exceptional students may be elected from the junior class.

Commerce Fraternity

The purpose of the Commerce Fraternity is to serve as a link between the students and the faculty of the school of Commerce, through which ideas may flow freely. The programs and activities of the Commerce Fraternity enable the student to see the theory which he has learned in a practical light by holding discussion groups and student-faculty debates. To speakers which highlighted the current year were Mr. Verbon Kemp, Executive Director of the Virginia Chamber of Commerce, and Mr. Sumpter Priddy, Jr., Executive Director of the Virginia Retail Merchants Association. New members are elected to this group on the basis of a 1.5 average in commerce, economics, political science, and accounting courses, and on the vote of the present members.

THE CALYX
YEARBOOK
WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY
LEXINGTON, VIRGINIA

March 25, 1965

The Student Body
Washington and Lee University
Lexington, Virginia

Gentlemen:

We believe that the Calyx tradition of using a popular celebrity selector has become rather trite and has wanted for effectiveness in recent years. In addition, the choices made by these selectors has rarely coincided with the consensus of student opinion.

It is for this reason that we have taken the liberty, as editors of this publication, to represent you, the student body, in selecting this year's Calyx Court. We sincerely hope that you like this year's bevy of beauties.

Calyx Queen: Miss Sandra Goff

Runners-up: Miss Marcille Miller
Miss Diane Aldredge

Attendants: Miss Jackie Kloby
Miss Susan Gray
Miss Francine Roberts
Miss Jean Toole

Best wishes to this year's winners.

Sincerely,

R. Kretzler
AB Sher

An Average Capitalist Discusses FREE ENTERPRISE

"I'VE THE RIGHT TO PLAN MY OWN LIFE, TO EARN A LIVING AS I SEE FIT."

" . . . I'm limited, of course, by my ability and determination. But, overall, I call the shots. I'll be paid according to what I contribute, too. If I'm valuable, I'll earn more; if lazy, less. But there's always the thought of working up. That's because I live in a Free Enterprise economy where I have freedom of choice and opportunity."

Our management employees and stockholders are united with this student under the Free Enterprise flag. We chose this business because we like it. But like other businesses, we must give the best possible service at the lowest possible cost.

As a yearbook editor, wouldn't you like—

✓ complete creative art assistance in planning and designing your book

✓ actual known production performances (by records) of substantially less than 10 weeks, as required by most yearbook manufacturers. No contract claims, either, of an additional 4 days on delivery for each 1 day any deadline is missed

✓ an association with a firm who has specialized in designing yearbooks perhaps longer than any other company

✓ our insistence of your reading and checking page proofs to avoid (or at least minimize) possible glaring errors in the completed edition

✓ an all out effort to please you in design, quality, and service at competitive prices

What more could you ask?
